GENERAL SHAKE-UP ASSURED IN PERSONNEL OF HOUSE COMMITTEES ---DEMOCRATS CONTROL SENATE

IMPORTANT WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE IS RIDDLED BY ELECTION

Chairmanships of Foriegn Affairs, Public Building and Grounds, Public Lands, Banking and Currency, and Agriculture Committees are Vacant ---Formation of the Wilson Cabinet May Make Further Vacancies.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Although Democratic control of the house of representaives by a greatly increased majority is assured a general shake-up in the personnel of the important house committees in the next congress will be necessary.

The all-important ways and means committee, which will shape into bills the tariff policies of the Wilson administration, was riddled by the election. Of the fourteen Democrats of the committee four will not return. Two of these, however, Hughes of New Jersey and James of Kentucky, go to the senate. Ransdell of Texas, and Brantley of Georgia are retired. Out of the seven Republicans on the committee, but two apparently will remain. John Dalzell of Pennsylvania and Samuel W. McCall of Massachusetts, for years shapers of the Republican tariff policy, were not candidates at the polls; and Ebenezer Hill of Connecticut. James C. Needham of California and probably Nicholas Longworth of Cincinnati were beaten.

Senator Payne of New York and Joseph W. Fordney of Michigan may be the only Republicans left.

The election of Representative Sulzer as governor of New York leaves the chairmanship of the important foreign affairs committee vacant. Flood of Virginia is ranking member of the committee, but he declined the chairmanship two years ago to accept a less important territories committee. Either he or Gardner of Texas is expected to get the place.

The election of Morris Sheppard of Texas to the senate, if seniority is followed, will move Representative Burnett of Alabama to the chairmanship of the public buildings and grounds committee, which handles the big public buildings so-called "pork barrel" bill.

The vacancy at the head of the public lands committee caused by the failure of Representative Robinson of Arkansas to return probably will be filled by moving up Representative Graham of Illinois, at present chairman of the committee on expenditures in the interior department.

The banking and currency committee, investigating the so-called money trust, will be without a head, Representative Pujo of Louisiana, having retired.

Representative Glass of Virginia is the ranking member of the committee. The retirement of Representative Lamb of Virginia as head of the committee on agriculture opens this place for Representative Lever of South Carolina, but Mr. Lever would be forced to give up the chairmanship of the education committee, which would go to Representative Ansberry of Ohio. This accounts for all the chairmanships left vacant by the election, but the formation of the Wilson cabinet may further alter the list. Representative Henry of Texas, chairman of the rules committee; Representative Burleson of Texas, a member of the appropriations committee and Representative Underwood, head of the ways and means, have been mentioned as cabinet possibilities.

Democrats Will Control Senate.

Control of the senate in the 63rd congress is now practically assured to the Democrats.

Conceding to the Republicans the legislatures of all states still in the doubtful column tonight, the Democrats will have a vote of 48, or just of the senate, with a Democratic of the senate, with a Democratic vice-president in the chair to cast the deciding ballot in case of a tie. Six states are yet to be heard from definitely. A senator from one of these would give the Democrats a clear majority and it is possible that their strength will be even further increased by winning in several

Kansas has been added to the Democratic column in the 'ast 24 hours. The states in which the complexion of the legislatures is yet to be decided are:

Illinois, Michigan, Oregon, South Dakota, Tennessee and Wyoming.

Ordinarily Tennessee could be relied upon to help the Democrats, but the factional fight there may prevent in this crisis. In Illinois there are complications growing out of the multiplicity of parties, making it uncertain whether there will be a senatorial election. In that state there should be chosen a successor to the deposed Senator Lorimer, as well as Senator Cullom, whose term expires on the fourth of March. If there should be no election the effect would favor the Democrats by reducing the membership of the senate to 94, of which the 48 already chosen would be a working majority. Whatever the outcome in any of the states mentioned there can be no doubt as to Democratic control of the senate.

In addition to the aid of the vice-president in an emergency, they will find willing co-operation among the Progressive senators. Three of four of the Progressives are almost as liberal in their tariff views and on other questions as the Democrats themselves.

Much interest is manifested in the political affairs of the Progressives. Heretofore they have been content to be known as Progressive Republicans. Whether any of them will withdraw from the Republican party is a question. If they should decline to co-operate with the Republicans of the senate the change would materially weaken the old party.

JOHNSON INDICTED FOR VIOLATION OF MANN ACT

Is Indicted by Federal Grand Jury Charged on Four Counts With Violation of Law—Bail is Fixed at $30,000.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Jack Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist, was indicted by the federal grand jury today charged on four counts with violation of the Mann act against the transportation of women from one state to another for immoral purposes.

Johnson was indicted on four counts and his bail was fixed at $30,000 by United States Judge Landis.

Federal officers were instructed to arrest Johnson, who could not be found early this evening. The search for the negro extended to various quarters of the city.

The case upon which the indictment was based was that of Delle Schriber, of Pittsburg, white, whom Johnson was charged with bringing to Chicago in August, 1910.

The jury, however, heard the testimony of Lucille Cameron, white, of Minneapolis, whose mother charged Johnson with abduction. The 19-year-old Cameron girl was held in bonds of $15,000 as a material witness in the government's case against Johnson.

After Max and David Weber offered a $15,000 bond for Miss Cameron, Judge Landis refused to accept it. He gave no explanation for his refusal. Plans were made to return Miss Cameron to Rockford, where she has been held in jail.

Soon after disposing of Miss Cameron's case Judge Landis went home and left instructions that he should not be called during the night. Meanwhile deputy marshals, armed with a bench warrant continued to search for the negro.

Johnson admitted that he knew Miss Schreiber, but declared that he had not given her transportation from Pittsburg to Chicago.

"This is one case where I can prove my innocence by a hundred witnesses," he said.

Johnson was surprised when he learned that the Schreiber girl who is 26 years old, had testified against him. He had believed her to be in Australia. She is being held in seclusion by government agents.

Found and Arrested.

Jack Johnson was arrested by Federal officers late tonight. They found the negro hiding in a hotel surrounded by four negro guards. An attempt was at first made by the guards to prevent the officers from entering Johnson's rooms, but they were pushed aside by the government warrant servers, arrested the negro prize fighter without serious difficulty. He was handcuffed and taken to the federal building. As all the federal judges had left the building for the night is seemed as if the negro would be compelled to spend the night in the county jail. The federal judges declined to leave their homes to go through the formality of accepting bail.

After several hours' work Johnson found a court clerk willing to act and the negro was taken to the home of his aged mother who signed the bond along with several others and Johnson was released.

HARVEST 800 PER CENT ON CAPITAL INVESTED

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Testimony brought out by the state railroad commission in its investigation of express companies today showed that the Wells-Fargo company, on an investment in California of $11,116,167, received in two average months—June and July, 1911—a gross revenue of $1,453,345, which would amount to $8,720,000 for the twelve months, or a little less than 800 per cent on the capital.

These figures developed from a report by F. R. Lashell, the commission's rate expert, and were not contradicted by C. R. Graham, the company's traffic manager.

WILL NOT TALK PLANS FOR FUTURE CABINET

SEEKS TO END ALL GOSSIP ABOUT CABINET APPOINTMENTS.

Wilson Not Believed to Have Discussed With Anybody the Framing of the Cabinet—Will Make No Decision Until After He Maps Out Own Course of Action.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 7.—President-elect Woodrow Wilson has not decided upon the personnel of his future cabinet, and he intends to keep his mind open on the subject for a long time before he takes office.

He was manifestly concerned today about certain speculations eminating from Princeton with respect to the probable make-up of his cabinet. To put an end, if possible to all gossip about cabinet appointments, he issued the following statement:

"Such speculations are fruitless. I mean to keep my mind entirely open with regard to appointments of the first consequence until a final announcement is possible. It will be useless to resort to me for corroboration of any report, because I shall have absolutely nothing to announce. No announcement will have the least authority that is not made over my own signature. These are matters which must be determined by very deliberate counsel and not by gossip."

There is every reason to believe that Woodrow Wilson, both as presidential nominee and presidential-elect has not only not discussed the framing of a cabinet with anybody, but will not make any final decision until after he maps out his own course of action with regard to his administration. From his announced intention of being "the best listener in the United States," for a few months, it is probable that until he has talked with party leaders and taken counsel with persons all over the country he will not let his mind deal specially with appointments.

The president-elect said tonight that he considered the time between his election and inauguration a period in which he should listen very carefully to the ideas of men enlightened and informed on national questions and that it was "a public duty" for him to do so.

The president-elect was confronted tonight with reports about his proposed vacation. He said that any definite announcement that he was going to the Bermudas was not authorized.

"For the very reason that I am going away to rest," he added, "I will have no announcement of my plans to make until the day before I start."

He said that if he did take a sea trip he certainly would not go on a private yacht, but would go as any other person would, on a regular steamer. He is anxious for a vacation, and it is likely that he will get away within a fortnight.

Governor Wilson had a busy time with his correspondence and telegrams today. Callers came in a steady procession in spite of the rain and muddy roads.

PARTIES CONFER CONCERNING NEXT SPEAKER OF ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE

Democryats and Republicans Must Unite in Order to Defeat New Party Members in Lower House.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—With the progressive forces holding the balance of power in the lower house of the Illinois legislature and standing a chance of holding the balance in the senate by virtue of the progressive tenydencies of two Republicans who have been elected, Democrats and Republicans to day discussed the common grounyd upon which they might unite in order to defeat the new party members.

That some understanding has been reached tentatively at least, was indicated when Edward D. Shurtleff, former speaker of the house, said after a conference with severel Republican leaders, that the Democrats with the backing of Governor Dunne should have little trouble in electing the next speaker.

It was reported also that the leaders were consideraing Lawrence Y. Sherman, the Republican senatorial nominee for the short term in the United States senate and James Hamilton Lewis for the long term, and a Dunne Democrat for speaker of the house.

Returns to date indicate that the senate will be composed of twenty-six Republicans, twenty-four Democrats and one Progressive. Twenty-six votes constitute a majority and if Senators Walter Clyde Jones and T. B. Stuart, Republicans of Progressive convictions, should join forces with G. W. Harris, the one Progressive senator, a deadlock could be established.

The standing of the house probably will be:

Republicans, 61.
Democrats, 65.
Progressives, 25.
Socialists, 3.

A majority on joint ballot would be 103.

WILL APPOINT PROGRESSIVE ON BOARD OF ELECTIONS

Chicago, Nov. 7. — Progressives today decided to demand of County Judge Owens within the next few days that he appoint one of their political party to a place on the board of election commissioners. Should Funk, the Progressive candidate for governor, finish second it will be come necessary under the law for Judge Owens to make the appointment.

NOMINEE SHOULD BE CHOSEN FROM TAFT STATES

May Pick Republican Vice-President From Idaho, Vermont or Utah.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Comment on the approaching election of a Republican vice-presidential nominee to receive the twelve electoral votes of Idaho, Utah and Vermont has brought out the fact that several members and officers of the Republican national committee favor the designation of a nominee from one of those states.

The results of Tuesday's election has made the filling of Vice-President Sherman's place on the ticket an appointment of an honorary character, and suggestions have been made here that the honor should go to some Republican from one of the three states carried by Taft. In this connection Senator Borah of Idaho, who has been suggested by several members of the committee, and former Governor Mead of Vermont, whose name was proposed before the Chicago convention, are both favored.

While the national committee meets in Chicago on Nov. 12th to select a candidate, it is not bound to designate any person if a majority of the committee favors leaving the nomination to the electors themselves. Such action would make it possible for each group of four Republican electors to cast votes for men of their respective states.

If the national committee makes the designation Governor Hadley of Missouri, in any event will have the support of a large number of the members.

"WHITEY" LEWIS FIRST OF FOUR TO FACE TRIAL

Will Be Placed on Trial Today, Indicted for the Murder of Herman Rosenthal.

New York, Nov. 7.—Frank Muller, known as "Whitey Lewis," will be placed on trial tomorrow as the first of the four gangsters indicted for the murder of Herman Rosenthal to face the jury. After the trial of "Whitey" is over, the other three, "Lefty Louie," "Gyp, the Blodd" and "Dago Frank" will be tried in turn.

A special panel of 200 veniremen has been summoned to appear in extraordinary terms of supreme court tomorrow morning. Justice Goff today directed that the murder trial now in progress in the same court room be hastened and a prolonged session of that trial will be held tonight in an effort to bring it to a close. Justice Goff will hold court early and late in the trials of "Whitey" and his companions.

On the eve of the trials of four gangsters—"Whitey Lewis," "Lefty Lopie," "Dago Frank," and "Gyp The Blood," accused of the actual killing of Herman Rosenthal an agreement was announced tonight between District Attorney Whitman, counsel for the indicted men, that the four shall be placed on trial together tomorrow.

Until almost the eleventh hour, it was expected that the men would have individual trials.

PROGRESSIVES WILL EXPECT REPRESENTATION

EXPECT TO BE REPRESENTED ON NON-PARTISAN GOVERNMENT BOARDS

Examination of Laws Bearing on Such Appointments Show That No Provision Is Made for the Selection of Members From Minority Parties.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7. —Statements by Progressive party leaders that they will expect representation on non-partisan government boards, commissions, etc., has led to an examination of the laws and preceeds bearing upon such appointments. This shows, it is declared, that the law-makers, in creating non-partisan boards and commissions, made no provision for the selection of members from minority parties. Consequently the general rule has been merely to prohibit more than a majority of the members of these boards and commissions being selected from one party, nothing being said of what party or parties the minority shall be chosen.

In accordance with this, President Wilson would be legally free, in most cases, to select minority members from any of the minority parties.

The Hepburn law, increasing the number of members of the interstate commerce commission from five to seven, provides that "not more than four commissioners shall be appointed from the same political party." The law governing the appointment of the three civil service commissioners provides that "not more than two shall be adherents to the same political party."

The law creating the board of general appraisers at New York provides that "not more than five of whom shall be appointed from the same political party."

The personnel of many commissions, such as the managers of the national home for disabled volunteer soldiers, and the board of regents of the Smithsonian Institution is determined upon by the house of congress itself without regard to the law as to non-partisans.

It is generally recognized that the question of moral support for the demand for representation will be passed upon by the Democratic house leaders alone.

In the house and senate, representatives of Progressives on committees and commissions is likely to bring complications. In the last congress the Democratic majority required the Republican minority, to care for the Socialist member in general rule in both the house and the senate is to allow the minority leader to make assignment of minority members or senators to the respective committees.

MONTHS OF PREPARATION PRECEDE EXPLOSIONS

Government Claims Four Months of Activity on Part of Labor Leaders on Coast Preceded Times Dynamiting.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 7.—Four months' activity on the part of labor leaders on the Pacific coast preceded the explosion in Los Angeles, according to letters and telegrams introduced by the government at the trial of the forty-five "dynamite plotters" today.

The government contends that the correspondence shows that John B. McNamara's mission to the Pacific coast was known to Clancy and Olaf Tvietoe of San Francisco, and to J. E. Munsey, Salt Lake City, Utah, charged with harboring the dynamiter for two weeks after the explosion. Testimony that dynamite was taken to the Iron Workers' headquarters in Indianapolis within a few weeks of the time the McNamaras were arrested was given by Martin J. Hyland, chief of police of Indianapolis. He identified newspapers which had been wrapped about four packages of dynamite. They were newspapers from Cleveland, Pittsburg and Cincinnati, the latest being dated April 3, 1911.

CONGRESSMAN LONGWORTH DEFEATED BY STANLEY BOWDLE

Son-in-Law of Theodore Roosevelt, Running on Republican Ticket, Was Defeated by 85 Democratic Votes.

Cincinnati, Nov. 7. — Congressman Nicholas Longworth, son-in-law of Thodore Roosevelt, was de-Bowdle, Democrat, by 85 votes, according to the official canvass of the vote of the First Ohio district. Congressman Longworth will not admit his defeat, however, and the result will not be finally known until the board of election has made its official canvass.

BELATED STATE ELECTION RETURNS

Uncertainty of California and Illinois is Chief Point of Interest

FEW STATES DOUBTFUL

Minnesota Probably Safe for Roosevelt---Wilson Wins Out in New Hampshire

RESULTS IN OTHER STATES

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Uncertainty as to the electoral choice of California and Illinois as developed by belated returns from both states, was thechief point of interest today, although the counting of ballots in several doubtful states was under way.

That Illinois was safely in the Wilson column was indicated early in the evening, but California, which had been claimed by the Democrats shortly after the closing of the polls, wavered toward the Progressive ranks. The Wilson plurality, estimated Wednesday at 12,000, was cut to less than 800, with a few hundred precincts still unheard from. Progressive leaderds claimed these would change the total to a Roosevelt plurality, but the missing precincts generally were accredited to the Democrats and the Wilson lead, while small, seemed safe. After apparently holding Illinois for nearly 40 hours from the time the polls closed, Colonel Roosevelt lost its 29 electoral votes late in the day when the assembling of the state-wide returns showed a victory for Wilson.

On the strength of incomplete returns as to the popular vote for Wilson, Roosevelt and Taft, the estimate was made tonight that Governor Wilson would not have a majority of all the votes. In many states the popular vote has been only roughly estimated thus far, but the votes indivate that the combined vote of Taft and Roosevelt will be approximately 1,000,000 more than the vote for Wilson.

These figures will be materially changed by the final count, but it is expected the proportion for each candidate will not vary greatly. The preliminary count gives Wilson approximately 46 per cent of the vote; Roosevelt 29 per cent, and Taft 25 per cent. The total vote thus far reporrnted is less than in 1908 while official returns are expected to bring it above these figures. In 1908, out of the combined vote of 14,030,858 cast for Taft and Bryan, President Taft received more than 54 per cent

Returns from Minnesota today confirmed the claim of Roosevelt to the twelve electoral votes of that state. The Wilson victory, claimed on the earlier returns, had become doubtful last night and as the count progressed. Latest returns tonight, with many precincts to be heard from, give Roosevelt an apparently safe majority.

The victory for Wilson in New Hampshire did not carry with it control of the state legislature, where the Republicans have a majority on joint ballot, and will dictate the selection of a United States senator.

Illinois

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Edward F. Dunne, Dem., carried the state of Illinois for governor by a plurality of 110,654, with 202 precincts not heard from. Outside Cook county his vote was 245,181, a plurality of 56,638 over Deneen. The counties outside of Cook gave Dunne 245,-181; Deneen, 188,543; Funk, 169,-451.

Cook county totals were:

Dunne 161,112
Deneen 107,096
Funk 108,435

Returns from Illinois counties out side of Cook give pluralities of from 40,000 to 50,000 to the Democratic candidates for state offices. Barrett O'Hara, lieutenant governor; Harry Woods, secretary of state; J. J. Lucey, attorney general; J. J. Brady, auditor; William Ryan, treasurer, and J. R. Travett, Helen M. Henrotin and Florence Eleanor Watson, university trustees.

All these candidates had pluralities of 10,000 or more in Cook county, insuring their election.

Iowa

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 7.—Practically complete returns from all but five of the 99 counties of the state continue to increase the plurality of Woodrow Wilson. The figures are:

Wilson 169,162
Roosevelt 149,540
Taft 111,084

Wilson's plurality, 19,622.

Complete returns from all but two legislative districts show that the legislature will be Republican at least 102 Republicans being assured of seats, while the Democratic membership will not exceed 56.

This assures the re-election of U. S. Senator Kenyon.

Official count of the vote of Iowa will be necessary to determine the election of governor. Supposedly accurate returns from 98 of the 99 counties of the state give George WALKS THROUGH WINDOW.

Fred Buffe, advertising manager for the Illinois Traction company, while in a state of somnambulism, walked through the window of his room in Peoria Wednesday morning and fell twenty feet to the ground, suffering the fracture of his right leg. The bone was broken in three places just above the ankle and the tendon of the hip and ankle were badly sprained. The injured man was removed to the St. Francis hospital, where his injuries received the necessary attention and the attending physician stated that no internal injuries had been received.

Mr. Buffe is a son of O. F. Buffe of this city and has many friends here who will hope for a speedy recovery.

CENTENARY CHURCH WELCOMES PASTOR

Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Flagge Given Reception—Family Gathering at Baptist Church, and Entertainment at Northminster.

Rev. and Mrs. George W. Flagge, who have recently come to Centenary church, were given a welcome in the church parlors Thursday evening. It was also in honor of Rev. F. A. McCarty, a former pastor of the church, who was recently appointed district superintendent, and his wife.

There was a large attendance of the membership and it was a royal welcome extended. Rev. Mr. Flagge is one of the prominent ministers of the Illinois conference. Already he has won the hearts of his people here, and the outlook is for a very prosperous year's work. His estimable wife is also a great church worker in every department.

The church was fittingly decorated for the occasion last night and the entire gathering was informal. The membership was also glad to include the former pastor and his wife in the welcome extended and withall it was a happy family church gathering where good will and cheer prevailed. During the time light refreshments were served.

Social at Baptist Church.

The young people of the Baptist church gave a very delightful social at the church Thursday evening which was attended by about 250 members of the congregation. There was such a large crowd present that it made the carrying out of a program impracticable and the evening was pleasantly spent in playing games and with music which was furnished by a Victrola loaned by J. P. Brown. During the evening delicious refreshments were served. The decorations, which were jack-o'-lanterns, corn and autumn leaves, was in charge of the Baraca class, the serving in charge of the Philatheas, the program in charge of the Young Ladies' Aid society and the refreshments in charge of the Amoma class. The social committee, which has entire supervision of the affair was composed of Miss Carrie Spires, chairman; Miss Hattie Adams, Miss Elizabeth Long, Miss Mabel Withee and Miss Maude Nesmith.

Gave Dime Social.

A jolly good time was enjoyed by the young people of the Central Christian church Friday evening at a "Dime Social." A brief business session was first held in which Miss Corinne Carlson tendered her resignation as the president of the society. The nominating committee for the selection of officers for the coming year was appointed. Contests of various kinds served to make the time pass quickly. After the serving of some delicious and substantial refreshments the evening's entertainment was pleasantly concluded by some selections of special music by the Misses Grace and Adelaide McCarty

At Northminster Church.

SHOW LITTLE CHANGE.

The official canvass of the vote on candidates for member of the state legislature shows little change from the figures given out earlier. All of the precincts in Sangamon county have been heard from and although the official canvass of that county has not yet been completed, so far as it has been corrected the change is small. The figures in both counties follow:

Lyon	4,648	11,352½	16,000½

MUTTON BIRDS IN MILLIONS.

Armies of Them Blacken New Zealand's Sky Every Spring.

Yearly, at the coming of spring, the thousand coastal islands of New Zealand, more especially those lying toward the south, become the temporary homes of myriads of mutton-birds, which pay a visit for the nesting season. Out of the silence of the great southern ocean come the birds in vast armies. Low flying over the water, for the most part close in shore, the huge flocks draw dark parallels of shadow across the seascape. The birds fly in separate bands, disciplined and massed in a serried whole—a continuous stream that passes between sea and sky. Each army shows a front of perhaps a quarter of a mile, the huge length stretching away league after league into interminable distance.

Stand on the brow of some coastal headland and watch the passage of one of these bird armies. It is a wonderful sight. Far below one looks down on a heaving floor of close packed, undulating black backs, lit by a myriad scintillations of white tipped wings. So close is the floor, so serried the ranks of the fliers, that the water beneath is hidden as with a carpet.

Hour after hour the passage of the army continues, from dawn till dark and far into the night. In the night the noise of countless beating wings that surges up over the cliff head tells that the army is still on the move till the whir of wings and cries of the rear guard beating up the stragglers grow faint in the distance and one realizes that at last the mighty host has passed on its way.—Wide World Magazine

DISMAL ENGLISHMEN.

Despair Over the State of the Country Becoming Chronic.

Dr. Forbes Ross, a well known London physician, says that England is "drifting toward the day when the average Englishman's face will be that of the typical criminal." He believes, says a correspondent of the New York Sun, that "the better classes of England cannot keep pace with the fearful stress of taxation and other burdens imposed upon them and are therefore being wiped out. In other words, modern legislation * * * is replacing the better classes by a mixture of sheep and wild beasts and the nation is being propagated by those retaining primordial qualities and the primitive instinct and the average Englishman at this rate will soon have a depraved gorilla countenance."

Despair over the state of the country is almost a national characteristic of the English. They are never so happy as when they are being gloomy about themselves. Any copy of any English paper will show that the English people are going to the demnition bowwows. The English addiction to patent medicines is another evidence of this general tendency to low spirits. Other nations see nothing in particular the matter with the English. They seem to outsiders to be doing fairly well as nations go. What they really need is a course of mental science and practice in the cheerful point of view.

The Danes and Britain.

John Ackworth, an English dialect novelist, who made a special study of the dialects of Lancashire, Yorkshire, the east coasts and also of the Danes, shows that the Danes by their early landings and sojournings in England have influenced the language of the east coasts of Britain to an extraordinary degree and that the Danes and the British in spite of apparent differences are one practically in speech and language as well as in the relationship of blood. "So strong is the English of the east coasts of England impregnated with Danish," John Ackworth once said, "that I am sure that if a fisherman from the east coasts of England were to be wrecked on the shores of Denmark and he would only speak in his true native dialect that fisherman would be able to make himself understood."

Hence the Lemons.

"How in the name of goodness did you come to buy so many lemons when I told you plainly to get only one dozen?" complained Mrs. Wratts to her new Scandinavian maid.

"Vell," answered Hedvig slowly, "you tolt me to git ay dozen. So I don't speak dass Inglish vell, so Ay tought you sayed two dozen. So Ay tolt de grosery man, an' Ay don't speak de Inglish very vell, so he tought Ay sayed tree dozen. So he tells it to hiss boy, but hiss boy ban a Irisher, and he gits four dozen. Dot's vy Ah bane gitting five dozen lemons. Ain't dey keep?"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

In For It.

"Always eat the skin of the fruit," ordered the doctor. "The skin contains essentials that you need."

"That may be, doc, but I know I'm going to get my throat all scratched up the first time I try to eat a pineapple with it's skin on."—Washington Herald.

Ill Luck, For Sure.

"Oh, papa, see these lovely opals! I don't believe opals are unlucky. Do you?"

"It will be very unlucky for you if you take a fancy to a high priced one, Ethelinda. You won't get it."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Proper Way.

"When you leave on the train," said the young man yearningly, "I will throw you a kiss."

"But," rejoined the girl, "don't you know that it isn't polite to throw things at people? You should always give them."—Exchange.

Musical Comedy at the Grand.

The Bassford Shaffer Musical Comedy company opened their engagement at the Grand Opera House last evening and at the rise of the curtain was greeted with a capacity house. "Winning a Mother-in-Law" was the title of the Tableau Musical Comedy, and that the show was appreciated was shown by the very hearty applause that greeted the various members of the company in the different musical numbers. Miss Rhea Ashler won the approval of all those present in "Please Teach Me How to Swim," being encored time after again. Specialties were introduced by the Miss Kaub, who sang several vocal selections, "Dot and Dot," the sister team, Miss Ashner, who established herself as a buck and wing dancer of some note, as well as Messrs. Robson and Young in their comedy cross fire. Manager Hunt is very fortunate in securing this high class production at popular prices, the universal opinion being that the show is the best and the largest that has ever appeared here, at five and ten cents.

Curious Geological Shiftings.

Although in the geological past vast changes of level occurred on the borders and even in the center of continents, it is a debated question whether at present similar elevations and subsidences can be detected. The frequently repeated statement that the coasts of Massachusetts and New Jersey are perceptibly sinking has been often disputed, the apparent subsidence being ascribed to simple changes of shore line. Nevertheless some curious records kept in Europe seem to indicate that actual fluctuations of the level of the land may occasionally be observed. In the valley of the Main a church tower hidden behind a mountain screen has since 1861 gradually risen into plain view from the chateau of Stroessendorf, and still farther in the same direction another church tower, which began to be visible from Stroessendorf eighty years ago, is now clearly seen above the horizon and is said to rise higher as time goes on. Similar records exist in Bohemia, in Switzerland, in Spain and in the French Jura.—Harper's.

An English Billion.

In England a billion is a million times a million. This is quickly written and quicker still pronounced, but no man is able to count it. You will count 160 or 170 a minute, but let us suppose that you go up as high as 200 a minute, hour after hour. At that rate you would count 12,000 an hour, 288,000 a day or 105,120,000 in a year. Let us suppose now that Adam, at the beginning of his existence, had begun to count, had continued to do so and was counting still. Had such a thing been possible he would not yet have finished the task of counting a billion. To count a billion would require a person to count 200 a minute for a period of 9,512 years 342 days 5 hours 20 minutes, provided that he should count continuously. But suppose we allow the counter twelve hours daily for rest, eating and sleeping. Then he would need 18,025 years 319 days 10 hours 45 minutes in which to complete the task.

Saw a Profit.

The artistic temperament often leads toward poverty, but it frequently compensates its victim with a saving grace of humor which makes even the poverty a source of fun. A young woman who was possessed of the temperament and had given up everything else for it suddenly sold a picture for a considerable sum and made haste to apply the proceeds as a first payment on a small cottage she had long desired. The former owner attempted to advise her about the neighbors.

"Now, that couple next door," he said warningly, "they are right good neighbors, friendly and all that, but keep your eyes open. If they see a chance to make a hundred dollars out of you they won't hesitate to do it."

"Fine, fine!" cried the young woman. "I'm going over now and see if I can't get them to do it on shares."

An Editor Extinguished.

Here is a story of a bumptious editor, told in W. H. Rideing's "Many Celebrities and a Few Others." The editor sat beside Mr. Gladstone at a dinner party.

"I received a note from you a few days ago," said Mr. Gladstone pleasantly.

"From me? Not from me. I am sure you didn't. You may have had one from my secretary."

Mr. Gladstone, though cleably hurt, nodded his head gently in acquiescence, and the conversation went on, Mr. Gladstone taking a predominant share. But the editor was not allowed to get a word in edgewise for the rest of the evening. Mr. Gladstone would neither see him nor hear him, and, except to himself, he was nonexistent.

Bats as They Feed.

Bats fly as soon as darkness begins. They live on such insects as are then on the wing—gnats, mosquitoes, moths and beetles. The service they give to vegetation, even in temperate climates, is considerable. Some hot countries could not be inhabited but for them. Most of the race are miscellaneous in their feeding and not very delicate in their taste. They devour indiscriminately all animal substances, whether raw or dressed and in any state.

A Study In Anatomy.

"Mamma, what part of the body is the trombone?"

"No part of the body, my dear."

"Yes, it is, because it says in the paper here that last night while returning from the symphony concert Professor Gridel fell and broke his trombone."

The Eternal Impulse.

Fair Suffragette—And now if any one who has heard my speech wishes to ask a question I shall be happy to answer. Masculine Voice (from rear of hall)—If you haven't any other company, may I see you home this evening?—Judge.

Wise Dogs.

"Why is it that the dog is always referred to as the most intelligent animal?"

"Because he knows how to get a good living without doing any work," replied the horse.—New Orleans Picayune.

Her Brand.

"That prima donna may be a little ancient," said the enthusiastic man, "but she's a peach."

"Yes," replied Miss Cayenne, "a preserved peach."—Washington Star.

Pleasure appeals to the senses alone, but happiness appeals to the spirit, and it is created by love and good will.

PUBLIC POLICY QUESTIONS.

The vote was light throughout the county on the questions of public policy that were submitted to the voters last Tuesday. The questions included that of asking the general assembly to create a legislative commission to investigate the most practical means of shortening the cumbersome election ballot and another was for the classification of property for purposes of taxation with taxes uniform as to each class within the jurisdiction levying the same, and still another to abolish the scandals and disorders now incident to the filing of petitions, to increase the secrecy of the ballot and the political freedom of the voter to simplify the system and reduce the expense of elections and to encourage a greater popular participation in primary elections to the end that the nominations may represent more truly the judgment of the majorities.

A meeting of the Springfield Presbytery, of which Jacksonville is a part, will be held in this city December 9. At the meeting held at Divernon some time ago a committee composed of Rev. W. E. Spoonts and W. S. Badger of Jacksonville, Rev. J. J. Wilson of Virginia and Rev. D. A. Carson of Springfield was appointed to make arrangements for the Jacksonville meeting.

The sessions will be held Monday afternoon and evening and Tuesday evening, and while some business will be transacted the meeting is to be mostly of a spiritual character. Among the speakers will be Dr. Luccock of Chicago, Dr. Bergen of Decatur, Rev. Gunter of Springfield and Dr. Bradley of Blackburn College, Carlinville.

W. Clarke, Republican, 176,182, and E. G. Dunn, Democrat, 176,099.

A reported Dunn plurality of 37 in the missing (Harrison) county, reduces the Clarke plurality to 49 votes.

Both sides are now claiming the election. Republican state officials say they have returns from all the counties of the state but two and with these estimated by figures from 90 per cent of the precincts Clark leads by 2,326.

Democratic headquarters with less complete returns are figuring that Dunn is winner by a vote close to 2,100.

Discrepancies in reported votes are large, the report from two counties varying 4,000 from the first figures given out Tuesday to the final figures as given out to day.

Wisconsin

Milwaukee, Nov. 7.—Governor McGovern, Republican, will have a plurality of at least 5,000 votes over Karel, Democrat, for governor, according to the returns received by Republican State Chairman Scott.

What few additional returns were received to day did not alter Wilson's chances and his plurality remains anywhere from 20,000 to 30,000.

New Hampshire

Concord, N. H., Nov. 7.—Complete returns for the state ticket give the Republicans a majority of 21 on the joint ballot in the legislature, which will be called upon to choose a gover and a United States senator. The vote for president: Taft, 32,964; Wilson, 34,743; Roosevelt, 17,802; Chafin, 351; Debs, 1,640.

California

San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Another correction in the Los Angeles figures at 11 o'clock to night again wiped out Wilson's narrow lead in California and put Roosevelt ahead by 130 votes. The figures are: Precincts heard from, 4,237 out of 4,372, give Wilson 280,125, Roosevelt 280,255. Roosevelt's lead 130.

It is now believed that the vote will be so close that California may send a split electoral delegation to Washington.

Nebraska

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 7.—With returns from three-fourhts of the counties in Nebraska Wilson's plurality is 30,000. The remaining counties should increase his lead to probably 40,000.

Oregon

Portland, Ore., Nov. 7.—Partial returns from every county in Oregon but two give Wilson 31,664; Roosevelt, 25,434; Taft, 23,600.

For United States senator—Lane, Dem., 28,206; Selling, Rep., 27,249; Bourne, Ind., 20,046.

West Virginia

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 7.—At midnight 911 precincts out of 1,621 in West Virginia give:

Wilson, 59,445.
Taft, 27,912.
Roosevelt, 38,157.

For Governor.

Thompson, Democrat, 58,687.
Hatfield, Republican, 62,226.

Prohibition Amendment.

For, 72,228.
Against, 35,579.

Returns from all the counties of the state at midnight, many complete, some with few precincts missing and estimates for others, show that the Republicans have elected Hatfield governor by about 4,000 plurality, over Thompson, Democrat.

Wilson for president received 92,095; Roosevelt, 58,613, Taft, 39,451.

The legislature is Republican on joint ballot by 18.

Prohibition wins by 75,000.

Colorado

Denver, Colo., Nov. 7.—Comp'ete returns tonight from 20 out of 62 counties in Colorado, including Denver, substanantiate the prediction that Wilson's plurality would approach 40,000.

These figures, together with the partial returns from 30 of the remaining 42 counties give Wilson 84,064; Roosevelt, 53,165; Taft, 41,473.

No reports have been received from 12 counties, but these are expected to add to the Democratic plurality.

South Dakota

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 7.—Col Roosevelt's plurality over Wilson in the state will approximate 5,000 votes. The governorship is in doubt. It seems likely the Republicans will control the legislature, insuring the election of Thomas Sterling, Republican, successful at the June primaries as United States senator.

Minnesota

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 7.—At midnight returns gave the following:

Taft, 59,712.
Wilson, 96,867.
Roosevelt, 113,008.
Roosevelt lead, 16,141.

In the contest for United States senator, 2,157 precincts at the same hour gave Nelson, Republican, 125,465; Lawler, democrat, 82,138.

Oklahoma

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 7.—Oklahoma will have six Democratic and two Republican representatives in the 63rd congress, according to complete unofficial returns tonight.

Pennsylvania

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—The presidential vote as completed at 11 o'clock tonight stands:

Roosevelt, 428,570.
Wilson, 384,259.
Taft, 262,166.

Montana

Helena, Mont., Nov. 7.—Partial returns show Democratic national and state ticket well in the lead.

Incomplete unofficial returns from 26 of the 31 counties at 10:30 o'clock gave the following:

For President.

Wilson, 18,556.
Taft, 11,928.
Roosevelt, 13,678.
Debs, 7,476.

For United States Senator.

Walsh, Democrat, 21,569.
Smith, Republican, 13,106.
Dixon, Progressive, 15,147.

Arizona

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 7.—Returns from 185 out of 381 precincts in the state give:

Wilson, 8,721.
Roosevelt, 6,195.
Taft, 2,606.
Debs, 2,725.
Chafin, 178.

Idaho

Boise, Ida., Nov. 7.—Returns late tonight representing four-fifths of the state, indicate that Wilson carried Idaho by a small majority. An official count may be necessary.

KILLED BY EXCITEMENT.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Excitement caused by the election is believed to have been responsible for the death of Mrs. Ida Graham, 38 years old, wife of William Graham, Democratic committeeman from the second ward. She sat in her home all night reading election returns and early this morning remarked:

"I am glad Wilson won, because he is a good man."

A moment later she fell to the floor and died of heart disease before a physician could be summoned.

ILLINI COMPETITIAN FIERCE.

Urbana, Ill., Nov. 7.—Competition for positions on Illinois 'Varsity seems as fierce as when the season opened, with several berths for the Purdue game open, although the last hard practice was given the Illini tonight.

Right end again is contended for by Wilson, Derby, Schobinger, Sneff and Dillon. Booze, at tacke, is menaced by Shapain, who substituted for him in the Minnesota game.

They Recover Quickly.

The marriage or rather the remarriage statistics in the mairies of Paris make sad reading for the sentimentalists. Of 2270 disconsolate widowers 148 remarry wirbin a year. The defections increase with terrible rapidity in the second year, which sees 628 relapses from the ranks of mourners. At the end of the third year only thirty-seven widowers remain. With the widows it is even worse. None remarry within the first year of their husband's decease, but it is feared that this is due not to fidelity, but to the strict legal veto which obtains in France. Once the law's delay is at an end they go off with vertiginous rapidity. Of 1307 weeping widows in eighteen months only four had not exchanged their weeds for wedding garments.—Paris Cor. London Telegraph.

Norway's Sick Insurance Law.

Norway has a sick insurance law which embraces all wage earners and public servants over fifteen years of age whose yearly earnings do not exceed $322 if in the rural districts or $375 in the cities. The law also provides that the employer shall pay a certain percentage one-sixth of the premium, while he is held responsible for the whole, but may deduct from the wages of the insured at the end of the term for which the premium is paid the amount thus advanced. Theoretically it is self insurance on the contributive plan, while actually it amounts to an extra tax upon the employer, as most employees stipulate when engaging their services that the insurance premium shall be paid in addition to the wages.

STATE NEWS.

Veteran Conductor Changed—It is said that when the new Alton time card goes into effect that Conductor Corey, the veteran of the limited runs, will take the Chicago-Joliet passenger. For some time past Mr. Corey has found work on the limited has been breaking him down. He will be succeeded probably by Conductor Foley or Conductor Boyd.

Pastor Resigns—Rev. J. Harvey Gunn, pastor of the Chatsworth Baptist church, has tendered his resignation to the church, and expects to leave Chatsworth in the not far distant future. He has several churches where the pulpits are open to him, but has not decided where he will locate. His contemplated departure is deeply regretted by many outside the church as well as by the members of the congregation.

Ton Stone Slab Sent by Express—The McCoy family mausoleum being built in Greenword cemetery in Decatur is the largest family mausoleum there. It happened that the stone ordered for a particular place in the building did not fit and this fact was not discovered until the workmen were ready to set the stone in place. The only thing to do was to send east to the quarry for another stone. It would have taken several weeks to get it by freight, so a telegram was sent explaining the error and giving the dimensions of the stone wanted, and it was ordered sent by express. The express charges on that one stone amounted to $20.

Brave Act—Frank Scalga of Freeport, at the risk of his own life, climbed up into the cupalo of a tenement house that was on fire and rescued Ralph Wickwire, who, while asleep in bed, was overcome by smoke and heat. Scalga was severely burned about the hands and face.

New Factory at Quincy—L. C. Barnes, who is representing eastern capitalists seeking a site for a cotton mill to employ 1,000 operators, has telegraphed to the chamber of commerce that Quincy has been chosen for the location.

Killed Big Game—Willard Hance, who is aged 11 years, was the only member of a party of huntsmen that has just returned from British Columbia, who was successful in killing big game. He killed a big moose with a single shot.

Narrow Escape—E. E. Rickard, one of the oldest freight conductors on the Wabash, was carried for many miles lying unconscious on the narrow running board of a swaying car.

New Armory—A movement has begun at Aurora to raise $35,000 for a new armory for the use of the local company of Illinois National Guard.

New Alton Concern—The Alton Steel company, with $10,000 capital stock, was licensed by Secretary of State C. J. Doyle. The incorporators are C. A. Caldwell, Eben Rodgers and D. A. Wyckoff. The purpose of the company, according to the license is the manufacturing and dealing in hoop steel and other metal work. The capital stock of the company will be increased later on as necessity arises when the corporation gets ready to begin active work of building its plant.

Tons of Mussel Fish Caught—October 1 marked the end of the most successful season yet experienced by mussel fishermen on the Illinois river. Beginning with the opening of the season last April, a series of large and valuable catches have been made by the local anglers. A total of nearly 360,000 pounds, or 180 tons, of mussel shells have been taken from the river between the end of the lake and the lower free bridge at Peoria. The mussel fishing industry first assumed large proportions around Peoria about four years ago and since that time has steadily grown in importance until now it furnishes a means of living for over fifty men in Peoria.

BRICK COMPANY IN TROUBLE.

The McNeil Pressed Brick company of Jerseyville is having all kind of trouble. The company is said to have borrowed $15,000 from Mrs. Grace Ball and later purchased two brick making machines from the Raymond company, the manufacturers of the machines holding a lien on them, until they were paid for. The United States district court at Springfield is now asked to determine whether the mortgage held by Mrs. Ball covers the brick making machines.

Mrs. Levi Atkins of Bluffs was shopping in the city yesterday.

BANNER APPLE CROP ON THREE ACRES.

Doubtless the banner apple crop in Pike county this season was produced by John Kaeser on a 3-acre orchard on his farm west of Pittsfield. From 3 acres, of about 150 trees, Mr. Kaeser sold 343 barrels of No. 1 apples; 196 barrels were purchased and barreled in the orchard by Mr. Caldwell of Griggsville. For these apples Mr. Kaeser received $1 per barrel; 47 barrels of choice Grimes' Golden, Jonathan and Rome Beauty were delivered to customers in this city at $2.25 per barrel. The total proceeds of the orchard were a little in excess of $100 an acre. Out of approximately 600 bushels barreled by Mr. Caldwell there was only 24 bushels of culls. In the entire orchard there was less than a wagon bed full of cider apples. Mr. Kaeser sprayed his orchard twice, once when the trees were in bloom and again when the fruits were set, using commercial liquid lime sulphur and arsenate of lead. To these sprayings Mr. Kaeser attributes this remarkable quantity and quality of his apples—Pittsfield Republican.

YOUNG MOTHERS

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby, too, is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.

NEW PRINCIPAL IS WELL RECOMMENDED

W. A. Gore Furnished Excellent Recommendations From Reliable Sources.

As will be noted in another column of this issue, William A. Gore was appointed principal of the local high school to succeed R. O. Stoops, who has resigned to take the position of superintendent of the city schools at Joliet.

Mr. Gore is now seving as principal of the Cairo high school and among persons wha have written to Mr. Rogerson, chairman of the high school committee, are William N. Butler, circuit judge, Cairo; John C. Hanna, principal of Oak Park high school; Thomas A. Clark, dean of men at the University of Illinois; E. J. Townsend, dean of college of science at the University of Illinois, and C. M. Thompson of Champaign. A letter written to Mr. Rogerson from T. C. Clendenen, superintendent of the Cairo schools, follows:

"Cairo, Ill, Nov. 5, 1912.

"Mr. George S. Rogerson,
"Jacksonville, Ill.,

"My Dear Sir:

"I have your wired letter of this date inquiring as to character and general qualification of Mr. A. W. Gore of this city. I wish to say frankly and candidly that Mr. Gore is a gentleman of unquestioned integrity in every way. He is a graduate of Illinois University, having both master and bachelor degrees from that institution. He has had an experience of two years as superintendent in small cities, two or three years' experience as insructor in the preparatory school or academy at Illinois University, and two years' experience as teacher in the department of mathematics in the Oak Park, Ill., high school.

"Mr. Gore was elected principal of this high school June, 1911, and gave us splendid service, as principal, supervisor and instructor. He was re-elected unanimously for a second time and is demonstrating his superior qualifications and successful experience to the entire satisfaction of our board of education, superintendent, assistant teachers, patrons, and the students of the school. He has revised our curriculum upon a broad and progressive basis, put new life into the character of the instruction of his assistants and energized the whole student body in every way that is commendable and inspiring in the general uplift of the school.

"Mr. Gore is a thorough progressive in all matters pertaining to the schools. We do not wish to lose his services, but we have no right to hold him from promotion to a higher salaried position. He will fill any position to which he may aspire with credit to himself and satisfaction to his employers.

"Very sincerely,
"D. T. CLENDENEN."

COMPLIMENTS J. F. CLAUS.

Laramie's Weekly Pythian Bulletin, a paper published in the interests of Knights of Pythias, in its current issue has the following to say regarding the appointment of J. F. Claus of this city as a member of the credentials committee of the Grand Lodge of Illinois:

"One of the new representatives who has made good at the Grand Lodge is Brother J. F. Claus of Favorite lodge No. 376, Jacksonville.

"Brother Claus is brisk, energetic and able and made more friends at the Grand Lodge than most new representatives do in a number of terms.

"Grand Chancellor Omo was so impressed with his personality and ability that he gave him an appointment on one of the most important committees of the Grand Lodge—the committee on credentials."

ALPHA DELTA SOCIETY.

The Alpha Delta society of the high school held their regular semi-monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon when a splendid program was given. After the program refreshments were served.

The following was the program:
Piano solo—Ruth Fitch.
Vocal solo—Florence Crane.
Original story—Lillian Angel.
Piano solo—Hilda Rose.
Debate—Resolved, That equal suffrage should not be granted." Sarah Frankenberg was leader of the affirmative and Blanche Dobson of the negative.

Equal to the Emergency.

Being equal to an emergency helps one out of plights into which the best of us sometimes fall. A certain actor came so belated to the theater one evening when he was to play Othello in the tragedy of that name that he forgot to blacken his hands and rushed on the stage with them white and his face sooty. Of course the audience giggled, and poor Othello, when he realized the cause of the mirth, was almost unable to proceed with his part and so deeply mortified that when he made his exit after his first scene he declared that he could not finish the performance, but a happy thought struck him. He procured a pair of flesh colored gloves, blackened his hands, put the gloves on and walked quietly on again. There was quite a little tittering as the Moor went on with his lines, but it entirely subsided as during a speech of one of the other characters the dusky lover carefully drew off his gloves, disclosing hands to match his face. Then those whose risibles had been affected felt small and awkward.

The End of His Rope.

"Charles," she said, "that's the worst cigar I ever smelled in my life. Throw it away. I'm stifling!"

And she uttered a little stifle.

"It cost 10 cents," he replied, caressing the hand. "The man said it took four Cubans three days to make it, and I'd hate to throw it away. It cost 10 cents."

"Nevertheless," she said between stifles, "if you don't throw it away it will kill me. It's terrible. You know I'm no chronic kicker, but just look at me!"

And indeed he had never seen any one stifle so fast or so hard. Yet he went right on smoking, muttering, "It cost me 10 cents."

The bill for the funeral (an elaborate one, for he felt quite upset) amounted to $146.80, and as he wrote a check for it he reflected, with a twinge of conscience, "It cost 10 cents, but I suppose it would have been cheaper to throw it away."—Pittsburgh Press.

BRADY MAKES SOME GOOD SUGGESTIONS

Well Known Citizen Talks About Campaign for Business Men's Association.

W. J. Brady has made some pertinent suggestions which might well be heeded in the campaign for membership which will soon take place.

In answer to an inquiry as to what I think of the revival of interest in behalf of the Business Men's Association which is now on foot, I wish to say that:

"The action of the Business Men's Association in putting on a campaign for securing new members is timely. It should have the co-operation and do-it-now activity of everybody concerned in the mercantile, industrial, municipal and civic development of Jacksonville.

"A special effort should be made to induce the young men to join the Association. Commercial development work needs the activity, the ambition and initiative of the young men. The young man need the association, the mature thought and inter-change of ideas that would surround him in such an organization. The distant future of Jacksonville must rest upon the shoulders of the young men that are here today and if we wish to perpetuate progressive and sane development we should make a strenuous effort to interest the young men of Jacksonville in our Business Men's association.

"Every store has from one to a half dozen enterprising clerks who would be more substantial, who would be more valuable to their employer and to themselves if they were members of the Business Men's association and were actively interested and were contributing their energy and ambition towards making a greater Jacksonville."

TWO HUNDRED MILLION DOLLAR PANEL OF JURYMEN

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—A two hundred million dollar panel of urymen was organized by Sheriff Harburger, of New York county today.

It is an annual custom of the sheriff's office to appoint millionaires to a panel from which the sheriff picks a jury in minor cases in his jurisdiction. These wealthy men accept no pay directly but turn the fees into a pool which is used for an annual dinner.

The sheriff's appointments this year include George W. Perkins, William K. Vanderbilt, Theodore P. Shonts, Isaac N. Seligman and a large number of others known as multi-millionaires.

DEFEAT OF LITTLE CONSEQUENCE.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Governor Hiram Johnson of California, defeated candidate for vice-president on the Progressive ticket, in Chicago today on his way home to California, announced that the defeat was merely an incident of the Progressive fight and "little more consequence to the ultimate success of earnest men than was the missing of a train.

T. H. Killam, of Albany, Mo., recently returned home after a brief visit here. He came to be present at the funeral of the late John W. Cleary. Mr. Killam has been away from Illinois for thirty years, but comes back every few years. He still retains his membership in Illini lodge I. O. O. F.

The Famous Easy Washer

This extraordinary offer—the greatest premium proposition ever made in connection with a laundry soap—will expire December 15, 1912.

Only 100 wrappers from Galvanic Soap entitle the holder to either six Rogers teaspoons or three dessert or soup spoons. Coupons packed in Johnson's Washing Powder will count the same as Galvanic Soap wrappers.

The La Vigne, or Grape Pattern, pictured here, is one of the finest examples of silversmith's art. It is a product of the factory of Wm. A. Rogers, Ltd., which in itself is enough to recommend it to the most discriminating. It comes in the fashionable French gray finish and will be a credit to any table. The silver plating is known as A-1 Extra Plate and is on a base of a very high grade heavy nickel silver. These spoons are guaranteed and with ordinary wear will last a lifetime.

All illustrations are necessarily reduced

The dessert spoons are regulation size and teaspoons usual 6-inch length

Take the front panel only of the wrappers from a box of Galvanic (100 cakes) to our Branch Premium Department, in the store of

ESTABLISHED 16 YEARS

On the day that William McKinley was elected president of the United States, The Johnston Agency was opened in the Duncan Bldg. It remained there 11 years, and has now been 5 years in the Courier Bldg. During these 16 years we have loaned approximately two-million dollars of Morgan county money on Morgan county land and Jacksonville residence property. During all that time the only property the lenders have had to take under mortgage was one the owner of which had died.

We respectfully solicit the placing of your loans, the selling of your real estate and the writing of your fire and tornado insurance business.

EVERYDAY WAISTS.

They May Be Charmingly Altered With Lace Coat.

REJUVENATED AFTERNOON SUIT.

This clever little coat of lace and net dresses up an afternoon suit of blue worsted in a delightful fashion.

There is a coat of the woolen stuff, and the bodice is of blue chiffon, stitched with white silk.

Engagement Announcement.

There were twelve girls in a neighborhood who had grown up together, and the first one to become engaged made the announcement in this way: Her elder sister wrote a brief history of her life on cards, one for each guest, which made eleven, placed each card in an envelope decorated with cupids and hearts and the name of the guest, so they served as place cards. But they were asked not to open the envelopes until after the dessert had been served. Of course this piqued the curiosity of all present and kept up a lively fire of conversation. Then the girl at the right of the hostess was asked to open and read her card, which told of a little girl and her first arrival in the village and her first day at school. The next gave another incident, and so on until the maiden was brought to her debut and her meeting with a certain man. The last card left off just right for the hostess to slip on her engagement sparkler, and so the denouement was made. Centerpiece was a loving cup filled with pink roses and forgetmenots, which were divided among the guests, and the cup filled with claret cup or grape juice, and all drank a standing toast to the happy bride to be.

This method is only practical where all know the bride well, and the fun depends upon the clever telling of the story, bringing out episodes with which all are familiar.

Useful Flashlight.

A useful little article is a pocket flashlight. This is made on the order of the tungsten light and can be had in nickel or solid silver. It is contrived to slip into a man's pocket or a woman's bag so that in evening calls a card could be read or a number seen or one's watch looked at on any such small emergency. It is about the size of a match box and the press button is of an artificial jewel, a ruby or turquoise, which adds to the general appearance of the article. In silver these cost $6 or $7 and are engraved; in nickel they can be had for $1 or $2. The tungsten lights are from about $1.50 up. Many people who live in a country house where there is no electricity use them to go up and down stairs in the dark or to have by their bedside so that they can see the time at night without striking a match.

Wedding Presents.

A charming idea that will be useful to those who know and wish to make offerings to the bride and bridegroom is to give them presents that match. A very popular young couple with many mutual friends received among their wedding presents recently two exceedingly neat and very smart short stick umbrellas for country wear, exactly alike save that one was just a little more attenuated in stature and bulk than the other.

Mixing Them Up.

A story about Signor Marconi has been floating about lately.

Mr. Marconi, at a dinner in Newport, was once seated beside a lady who, mixing him with his compatriot, Mascagni, said:

"Oh, I'd so love to hear you play your beautiful 'Intermezzo.'"

"I'll do it," the inventor answered promptly, "if you've got a wireless piano."—Washington Star.

WILL MAKE ADDRESS TO WOMAN'S CLUB

Miss Cora M. Patten Will Explain Work of American Drama League.

The Woman's club is planning a splendid meeting for Saturday afternoon when Miss Cora Mel Patten of the American Drama league will give an address on the work of that organization. All of the various study clubs of the city have been invited as guests of the Woman's club. Miss Patten is well known as a lecturer and reader and in the work of the Drama league is best known as chairman of the Junior department.

Organized in 1910, the American Drama league now has a membership of 8500 in Chicago alone, with an affiliated membership through clubs belonging to it of over 50,000. Briefly stated the league idea is: To crowd out vicious plays by attending and commending good plays and building up audiences for them through study classes, reading circles and lectures; to stimulate an interest in the best drama and to awaken the public to the importance of the theater as a social force and to its great educational value if maintained on the high level of art and morals.

The league works through a playgoing and an educational committee. As new plays are produced, the play-going committee attends them and then sends by mail to all members of the league bulletins giving information about the play and an appraisal of it. Thus the league keeps its members informed about good plays and in so doing saves both time and money that might otherwise be wasted upon experimental attendance upon poor plays. The work of the committee is in no sense a censorship, but is constructive and affirmative.

Miss Patten's address Saturday will be on "The Story of the American Drama League." It is expected that the formation of a league center in Jacksonville will follow as a result of the meeting. All women who are members of any of the clubs of the city are invited to be present. Those not affiliated with any of the clubs who wish to hear the address will be admitted upon payment of twenty-five cents.

Scenes From "A Modern Eve," Opera House, Wednesday, November 13.

Mort H. Singer is sending his Chicago company to the Grand on Wednesday, Nov. 13, to present "A Modern Eve," the new musical comedy success, the music by Victor Hollaender and Jean Gilbert, and which has to its credit a run of one-half year in Chicago during and through the past summer, where it played to crowded houses all of that time, an indication of its popularity. Mr. Singer in presenting this tuneful, merry operetta has given it a most luxurious surrounding, a capable company and every detail that goes to make it attractive is to be seen in its general effect. The operetta is now in its second year of continuous success in Berlin and Paris, has had a most attractive season in London and was the foremost attraction running in Chicago during this summer. Its songs are of the melodious, whistling, jingling kind and attracts attention because of their effective prettiness. There are twenty song numbers and as they progress through the performance, one song seems to vie with the other in effectiveness.

Woman's Beauty is Based on Health

To have health, bowel movement is absolutely necessary—How best to obtain it.

MRS. AMELIA BISHOP.

If woman's beauty depended upon cosmetics every woman would be a picture of loveliness. But beauty lies deeper than that. It lies in health. In the majority of cases the basis of health, and the cause of sickness can be traced to the action of the bowels.

The headaches, the lassitude, the sallow skin and the lustreless eyes are usually due to constipation. So many things that women do habitually conduce to this trouble. They do not eat carefully, they eat indigestible foods because the foods are served daintily and they do not exercise enough. But whatever the particular cause may be it is important that the condition should be corrected.

An ideal remedy for women and one especially suited for their delicate requirements, is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which thousands of women endorse highly, among them Mrs. Amelia Bishop, Lawrenceburg, Ind., and Mrs. William J. Bell, 867 33d St., Milwaukee, Wis., who have it constantly in the house to meet such emergencies. All the family can use Syrup Pepsin, for thousands of mothers give it to babies and children. It is also admirably suited to the requiremens of elderly people, in fact to all who by reason of age or infirmity cannot stand harsh salts, cathartics, pills or purgatives. These should always be avoided for at best their only effect is only for that day, while a genuine remedy like Syrup Pepsin acts mildly but permanently.

It can be conveniently obtained at any durg sore at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. You will find it gentle in action, pleasant in taste and free from griping, and its tonic properties have a distinct value to women. It is the most widely used laxative-tonic in America today and thousands of families are never without it.

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before using it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 413 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., and a free sample bottle will be mailed you. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

GENERAL MARKET NEWS

SPRING WHEAT HAS BEARISH EFFECTS

Big Stock of Spring Wheat Coming Before Close of Navigation Has Bearish Effect on Market.

(By Associated Press.)
Chicago, Nov. 7.—Belief that a big stock of spring wheat would be on hand here before the close of navigation had a bearish effect today on the market. Latest prices were down ½ to ⅞c net. Corn showed a decline of ⅜ to ⅝@⅞c from last night and oats a loss of a sixteenth to ¼c. In provisions there was an advance of 5 to 10c.
Wheat closed heavy at the bottom figures of the sessions. Prices at no time were more than a small fraction above last night's finish. Outside of covering by shorts, the only substantial support came from the leading long interest and was not of as aggressive character. On the other hand, some of the big cash concerns sold the December option freely and were declared to be anticipating heavy arrivals by way of the lakes.
December ranged from 88⅜ to 89½@89⅝c, closing ½c not lower at 88⅝c.
Corn turned weak owing to the fine weather. December fluctuated between 50 and 50½@50⅝c, closing ⅝c under last night at 50@50⅛c.
Arrivals of oats gave no sign of a let up. In consequence the market inclined to the downward course of other grain. Outside limits touched by December were 31⅛ and 31½c, the close being a shade off at 31¼c.
Scantiness of hog supplies took provisions higher, but important speculative selling led to some reaction. In the end the best gain was in May Pork, 10c.

NEW YORK STOCKS.
New York, Nov. 7.—None of the buoyancy which characterized yesterday's operations in stocks was manifested today. Trading, while much under the total of yesterday's session, was moderately large, but its professional character was doubtless a source of disappointment to those who had expected that the close of the political campaign might stimulate investment demand.
Initial prices showed some material gains, especially in St. Paul the coppers and Sears-Roebuck.
In fact St. Paul later became the leader in respect of strength, with marked improvement in the Harriman and a few minor rails, including Missouri Pacific. Pressure upon Reading and steel resulted in a general shading of prices later. There was further marked weakness in beet sugar and a sharp break in American cotton oil, because of the failure of an expected dividend, St. Paul was at its best in the final hour when the general list became more irregular.
Much of the restraint shown by this market was traceable to foreign conditions. London's prices for our stocks constituted a mixture of gains and losses, in contrast to the previous day when many sharp advances were recorded. Move-over the tone of the Paris and Berlin bourses was not entirely hopeful, the Balkan situation again obtruding itself.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

CURRENT EVENTS IN EDUCATION.

School All the Year Round.

A few years ago the idea of school or college all the year round would have been hotly decried; today it is an established fact in a number of educational institutions, public and private. It is not merely that the summer session has been widely introduced, but the summer work, from being a purely voluntary and separate affair has come in some instances to be an integral part of the year's work, according to reports received at the United States bureau of education.

The Harvard Engineering School is a recent instance among higher institutions. The course for the master's degree in engineering at Harvard now takes two years, and there is no summer vacation. The course is divided into first summer, first year, second summer, and second year. The students work from 8 to 10 hours a day, and the total vacations in a year amount to about four weeks, the time being chiefly at Christmas and in the spring. The summer term begins June 22 and closes September 22. A number of other universities follow a somewhat similar plan. The University of Chicago has for some years maintained a summer term having equal weight with the three other quarters of the year.

Even in the elementary school the plan has made some headway, particularly in the large cities. Cleveland, Ohio, formerly had an all-year schedule which included the summer term as one of four quarters, and a modified form of the Cleveland plan is in use in Newark, N. J., where it is being gradually extended from year to year. In the New York city schools, where the problem of sufficient school accommodations is a serious one, the authorities have recently had under consideration an all-year plan which will, it is claimed, take care of practically all the children without recourse to half-time. An interesting indication of the attitude of the students themselves toward the all-year plan is afforded by the new Central Commercial and Manual Training high school at Newark. Thirty per cent of the pupils of this school voted in favor of continuing the school throughout the summer.

It is claimed by the advocates of the all-year plan for public schools in the large cities that the children are healthier and happier in school than on the streets. It is further urged that by taking advantage of an optional summer term children who are compelled to leave school at an early age will be able to advance further in the grades than at present. Backward pupils will also have an opportunity to make up back work, but this has always been more or less a feature of summer sessions.

In the case of the higher institutions, particularly the technical schools, the new movement for all-year work is undoubtedly part of the nation-wide demand for scientific efficiency that is making itself felt in every phase of American life.

BOARD APPOINTS WILLIAM A GORE

Will Succeed R. O. Stoops as Principal of High School.

The board of education met Thursday night in adjourned session for purpose of considering the appointment of a high school principal to succeed Prof. R. O. Stoops, resigned.

After considering the claims and applications of various persons Wm. Adolph Gore, now teaching at Cairo, was elected to fill the place.

The Proceedings.

The board met with all present, Mayor George W. Davis in the chair.

Supt. Furr, who was present, said he had received an application for his presence and assistance at a teachers' gathering in Sunbury, Pa., for four days and would be glad to go if the board was willing for him to do so.

Member Clampit moved the gentleman be permitted to go. Member Badger seconded and the motion prevailed.

The clerk then read various recommedations in favor of W. A. Gore, an applicant for the principalship of the high school. They were from C. W. McCoon, registrar Illinois University; George H. McGill, member Oak Park high school board, S. H. Bacon, secretary Chicago teachers' association; John C. Hanna, of Oak Park high school. The following were to Member Rogerson.

Thomas Clark, dean of men, Illinois University; E. J. Thompson, dean of college of Science, Illinois University; Chas. M. Thomson, Champaign; T. C. Clendenin, Supt. schools, Cairo, Ill.; Wm. M. Butler, circuit judge, Cairo, Ill.

On motion of Member Rogerson the letters were placed on file.

Member Clampit then read a large number of applications from various persons desiring the position of high school principal and they were ordered placed on file.

Supt. Furr being called on said he had examined the various recommendations of Mr. Gore and had seen him for a few minutes and had asked him a good many questions and the gentleman's answers pleased him. Mr. Gore is a good looking man physically and his answers to the questions asked were good. Mr. Furr had also wired Prof. Clendenin, superintendent of schools at Cairo, where Mr. Gore is employed and had asked for a letter in response, but had received a telegram instead speaking well of Mr. Gore. He was inclined to think well of the gentleman and to recommend him for the position.

A letter was also read from Prof. William Miller, of the Chicago University. The writer had interviewed the several teachers under whom Mr. Gore had studied and all spoke well of him. A letter also from Prof. Clendenin, superintendent of the Cairo schools, spoke in great praise of the gentleman regarding his qualifications as a teacher, his work in athletics and other departments.

Member Clampit said he had felt it to be but fair to all to wait before taking action so that all who cared to make an application might be heard and as that had been done he was ready for action and would let Member Rogerson make any motion the gentleman saw fit.

Member Rogerson moved William A. Gore be appointed to fill the unexpired term of the school year at a salary of $1600 a year.

Member Bavington seconded and the motion prevailed unanimously.

The clerk asked the members what they would do in regard to securing funds for anticipating the payments of warrants.

It was discussed at some length informally and finally it was decided that Members Bavington and Badger be a committee to wait on the banks and see what they would do in the matter. Carried.

The mayor thought each bank would take care of its own customers and so the matter would be arranged.

Adjourned.

TO DISCUSS EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN.

Not the feeble-minded and degenerate child alone, but also the handicapped normal child, needs special attention in our schools, according to the announcement of the National Association for the Study of Exceptional Children. The third annual conference of the association, to be held in New York, October 30 and 31, will be devoted to the educational and social rights of exceptional children of the handicapped type, in contradistinction to the care of the comparatively small number of feeble-minded and degenerate, who must be provided for in separate institutions, and for whom there is usually little possibility of educational development in the usual sense of the word.

The significance of the problem lies in the fact that there are far more exceptional children of this type, which includes also children apparently retarded, than there are of the class of real defective and degenerates.

A number of well-known speakers have agreed to take part in the discussion, and some of the interesting topics to be considered are: Tests for measuring intelligence; the "borderland child;" juvenile delinquency, habit formation; school and community gardens; practical methods of correcting impediments in speech; Dr. Montessori's "children's houses;" medical inspection; rational human eugenics; and numerous phases of the general problem of retardation.

Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education, will preside at the conference.

BOOSTERS WILL TALK.

Members of the Young Men's Booster club will meet this evening in the Socialist hall at 8 o'clock. Several addresses will be made by members of the club and the committee is very desirous that there be a large attendance.

The Kangaroo at Bay.

When pursued the kangaroo, if possible, directs his flight toward the river. If he reaches it he enters and, thanks to his great height, is able to go on foot to a depth where the dogs are obliged to swim. There he plants himself on his two hind legs and his tail, and, up to his shoulders in the water, he waits the attack of the dogs. With his fore paws he seizes by the head the first dog that approches him, and, as he is more solidly balanced than his assailant, he holds the dog's nose under water as long as he can. Unless a second dog speedily comes to the rescue the first one is sure to be drowned. If a companion arrives and by his attacks on the kangaroo manages to set the captive free the half drowned brute is glad to regain the shore as quickly as possible. In this way a strong and courageous male kangaroo will hold his own against twenty or thirty dogs, drowning some and frightening others, and the hunter is obliged to intervene with a bullet.

Queer Bits From India.

In "Omens and Superstitions of Southern India" Edgar Thurston, the author, says:

"On one occasion, when I was in camp at Coimbatore, the oddes (laborers), being afraid of my evil eye, refused to fire a new kiln of bricks for the new club chambers until I had taken my departure. On another occasion I caught hold of a ladle to show my friend Dr. Rivers what were the fragrant contents of a pot in which an odde woman was cooking the evening meal. On returning from a walk we heard a great noise proceeding from the odde men, who had meanwhile returned from work, and found the woman seated apart on a rock and sobbing. She had been excommunicated, not because I touched the ladle, but because she had afterward touched the pot."

Pepys and His Spectacles.

Pepys in his famous diary tells of those devices which he used when his eyes began to fail him. Aug. 31, 1668: "The month ends mighty sadly with me, my eyes being now past all use almost, and I am mighty let upon trying the late printed experiment of paper tubes." A few days later he is "mightily pleased with a trial I have made of the use of a tube-spectacle of paper, tried with my right eye." And so it goes on, the tube being used first for one eye, then for the other, and finally he has a vizard, into which a tube for both eyes with glass in it is fastened. It was of no use, and the diary had to be discontinued. But Pepys lived and saw and prospered for many years after he had given up tubes and glasses.

Parisians and Nerves.

The Parisians suffer from nervous attacks to an appalling extent. "If one invites any Parisians to dinner one must be prepared for regimes," writes Miss Amnesley in "My Parisian Year." "This man cannot eat bread and must drink only white wine; that woman can eat only 'alimentaires;' another must begin with hot water. * * * I was at a dinner once where there were sixteen guests; seven of these were on special diet, and three had little bottles of pills with them! * * * I was at the house of a noted writer one afternoon, and his wife took his temperature five times in an hour and a half. The last time the thermometer marked 99 degrees. Madame flew to the telephone and implored the doctor to come."

Parrots and Trees.

There seems to be a species of parrot adapted for each of the more conspicuous kind of trees which are found in tropical forests. Thus, if the tree is a palm which has a single stem and can afford nourishment for a bird only at or near the top of that stem, then the species of parrot that feeds on it is an air bird, capable of flying over the forest in search of such trees. When this is the case the body of the bird is light and the tail long. On the other hand, the parrots which inhabit trees with many branches have stout bodies and short tails and are short sighted.

Silhouette.

Silhouette was the name of a French minister who endeavored to raise the revenues by taxing the nobility. In consequence he became very unpopular, and, the fashion of profiles in black coming in about the same time, they were called in derision silhouettes, the nobility claiming that they had their portraits done in black because they were too poor to have a full picture taken.

An Honest Thief.

On leaving a Paris theater a German gentleman felt for his watch. It was gone. Having a strong suspicion, he laid violent hands on a man in the crowd, who quietly gave up the ticket. When he got home he found his own watch lying on the table.

ATTACKS OF HICCUPS.

If Persistent They May Carry With Them a Grave Warning.

Hiccup is the spasmodic contraction of the diaphragm. It may be a symptom of the most trivial importance that yields to the simplest kind of treatment or of a serious and intractable affection that persists for a long time and even produces death by exhaustion. No one may hope to be entirely free from hiccup; in its simple form it is extremely frequent, but upon the whole it is more common with children than with adults.

Sometimes the attack comes on without any apparent cause, but it may follow a sudden chill, such as that caused by stepping from a warm bed to a cold room; it may accompany a violent fit of crying, or it may be due to the distension of the stomach by food or gas. Severe fright or nervous shock has also been known to lead to intractable attacks of hiccups.

A feeble infant with whom hiccup comes to be of daily occurence often falls into a state of extreme exhaustion. In such a case great care should be taken to ward off or put an early stop to the attack.

Where there is any serious disorder of the abdominal organs, persistent hiccup is a disquieting symptom, and when it occurs as an accompaniment of kidney disease it is almost always of grave significance.

In simple cases very slight measures are sufficient to put an end to the attack. Anything that causes a feeling of suffocation will generally effect a cure, because that feeling naturally results in a forced contraction of the diaphragm. One old fashioned remedy is the slow sipping of a glass of water; another is the drawing and holding of deep breaths at regular intervals.

In the case of small babies, a mere change of position will sometimes stop an attack. When the hiccup does not yield promptly to simple measures, careful search should be made for the cause. In the case of infants or small children, this is usually connected with the diet.—Youth's Companion.

KISSING IN ENGLAND.

Its Prevalence at One Time Used to Puzzle Foreign Visitors.

Kissing, which has been officially prohibited at the railway station of Sarmen, in Switzerland, flourished in England in the seventeenth century to such an extent that the foreign visitor was bewildered by its prevalence. Nicolaus de Bethlen, who traveled in England in 1663, writes that "my brother and I behaved very rudely on one occasion, being unaware that it was customary in that country to kiss the corner of the mouth of ladies, instead of shaking hands, as we do in Hungary. We were invited to dine at the house of a gentleman of high rank and found his wife and three daughters (one of them married) ready to receive us. We kissed the girls, but not the married ladies, and thereby greatly offended the latter. Duval apologized for our blunder and told us that when saluting we must always kiss the senior lady first and leave the girls to the last."

The learned and sedate Erasmus in 1499 wrote a Latin letter from England to his friend Fausto Anfrolini advising him to come here at once, for, he remarks: "Here are girls with angels' faces who will receive you with kisses. They come to visit you, kisses again. Should they meet you anywhere, kisses in abundance—in fine, wherever you move there is nothing but kisses."

In 1466 a Bohemian nobleman named Leo von Rozmital visited England and in the "Journal of His Travel," published in 1577, he noted, "It is the custom there that on the arrival of a distinguished stranger from foreign parts the hostess with all her family goes out to meet him and the guests are required to kiss them all, and this among the English was the same as shaking hands among other nations."—Chicago News.

Pythons Like Milk.

"The fondness of pythons for milk is notorious," said an official of the zoo. "A python will follow a bowl of milk for miles and then be perfectly satisfied with the milk as a reward for its journey. In India sometimes the natives in traveling through the forests carry a torch ahead for fear of wild animals, and one man will bring up the rear carrying a bowl of milk. In this way they sometimes enter a town followed by half a dozen pythons, as they say in India, 'wagging their tails behind them.'"—New York Times.

Not Worrying.

Will and Won't.

"Is yer gwine fer let dat mewel do as he pleases?" asked Uncle Ephriam's wife. "Whar's you' will power?"

"My will power's all right," he answered. "You jest want fer come out hyar an' measure dis here mewel's won't power."—Christian Register.

Bankrupt.

HAYNES.

John Haynes died at 8 o'clock Thursday morning at his home near Virden. Deceased was 65 years of age and death was a welcome relief from suffering, as he had been afflicted with cancer for some time.

Mr. Haynes was born in Morgan county 65 years ago, and had lived here all his life till ten years ago, when he removed to Macoupin county. He leaves a wife and nine children, Walter, of Nebraska, Irvin and Bruce, of Texas, Bert, of Waverly, John, of Modesto, Herschel, of Virden, Mrs. Lola Peak, of Terre Haute, Indiana, Mrs. Fannie Sooy, of Murrayville, and Miss Bessie, at home. He also leaves six grandchildren and brothers William, of Wichita, Kan., Ira, of Franklin, L. B., of Jax, and one sister, Mrs. Francis Hart, of Franklin.

He was a consistent member of the Baptist church and an honorable and upright man.

The funeral has not been definitely announced, but will probably be at Franklin at 11 a. m., Saturday.

Morrison.

Margaret Gilham Morrison, who has been dangerously ill for the past month, died Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. R. Morrison at Oakland, Ill. About a month ago the daughter became ill with appendicitis and the case had gone so far that the physicians did not think it would be advisable to operate. Later on an operation took place in order to drain off the poison from the system. A few days ago the child rallied and the attending physician thought there was some chance for her life. Thursday morning early she took a sudden turn for the worse and died at the hour stated above. Margaret was born at Mahomet, Ill., and would have been 11 years of age in December. She was possessed of a bright mind and was always a favorite with her playmates and companionable to older people.

The Morrison family formerly resided in Jacksonville, when Rev. Mr. Morrison was pastor of Brooklyn M. E. church. Paul Morrison is now a teacher in the high school. The entire family will have the deepest sympathy of many friends in their great bereavement.

Besides the parents there survives three brothers, Paul of this city, Edward W., married and residing at Mahomet, and Rees at home.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the family residence in Oakland and interment will be made in that city. Paul Morrison left this morning over the Wabash to attend the funeral services.

WAR REPORTS BRING NOTHING OF IMPORTANCE

Both Armies Appear to be Resting For Final Struggle at Tchatalja.

London, Nov. 7.—The last twenty-four hours have brought little news of importance from the seat of the war. The report that Saloniki has been evacuated is premature, and a similar report concerning Monastir still is unconfirmed. There is no authentic news of the alleged defeat of the Turkish troops before Tchatalja.

On the contrary a Constantinople despatch sets forth the Turkish claim that there are no Bulgarians before Tachatalja, and that both armies are resting. The Turkish reports regarding the progress of the war, however, have been so consistently misleading as to have little value.

The present lull in news today mean that some important action is proceeding.

In the meantime diplomatic efforts to end the war are making no progress and the European press is busy discussing all the aspects of the settlement of difficult questions. Everything tends to show that almost irreconcilable antagonisms will arise over the allocation of Turkish territory. Servia claims as her share a large part of Albania, including the Adriatic ports of Durazzo, Alesso and San Giovanni Di Medua. According to the Servian premier's statement to the Paris Temps, the allies desire the partition of European Turkey leaving the fate of Constantinople to the decision of the powers. According to reports current in Berlin the intention of the allies is to divide Albania between Servia and Greece but an agreement already exists between Austria and Italy, which would be supported by Germany, guaranteeing the integrity and independence of Albania, and the triple alliance is determined to prevent at all costs, from reaching the Adriatic. It is ever asserted that the triple alliance has agreed to make Albania independent with the Duke of Abruzzi as king.

Another important meeting occurred at Bucharist today between the Rumanian premier and the Russian and Austrian ministers. It is reported that the powers tomorrow will communicate to the Balkan states Turkey's request for mediation.

Remains Loyal to Party.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—No light was thrown on the question of who will have second place on the Republican presidential ticket by the visit of Governor Hadley of Missouri to Washington today.

The governor, who came this morning on the train to which President Taft's car was attached, left tonight for Chicago. On arriving he told a questioner he had not been asked to take second place on the ticket and later he said the subject was not discussed at an interview with President Taft during the day.

Governor Hadley stated that he came to Washington on private business and that his call on the president was purely a personal one. He said though, he did discuss the future of the Republican party with the president, and intimated that he proposed to remain loyal to the party and aid in rehabilitating its fortunes.

RECEIVERS ARE APPOINTED.

Boston, Nov. 7.—Receivers were appointed today for the department stores controlled by William S. Butler & Co., the Gilchrist company and Everybody's Store company. It is estimated that the liabilities of the three concerns amount to more than a million dollars.

William E. Butler, treasurer of the three companies, committed suicide by shooting last night.

While the accounts of the concern are said to be greatly mixed it is believed that the assets will more than cover the liabilities.

ADOPT TAX AMENDMENT.

SHAVED BY FORCE

Peter the Great's Merry War on Beards In Russia.

RAZORS FOLLOWED THE TAX.

When Heavy Fines Failed to Produce the Desired Result the Czar Had Barbers Seize His Subjects In the Streets and Mow Their Whiskers.

Peter the Great on his return to Moscow in 1699, after traveling through Germany, Holland and England, determined to make his Russian subjects look like Europeans, for at that time, in both appearance and manners, they resembled the Asiatics. They were dressed in long robes reaching down to their ankles, gathered in folds at the waist and girded by a belt or sash, the wealthier classes wearing garments of rich materials, lined with costly furs, and on their heads they wore a high cap with a fur border.

They took a great pride in their long beards, which were combed out over their breasts, and they reckoned them not only an ornament to the face, but a distinction from the surrounding nations, who were all clean shaved.

Peter began his reforms by ordering all the boyars, or nobles, to appear at court in English dresses on pain of his displeasure, and patterns of English coats were hung up at the gates of the city, and all persons passing through the gates in their long habits had to pay a tax or else have their skirts cut round by the knees.

The poor peasants alone were exempted from this rule. On the wearing of long beards a tax was imposed, but this measure only increased the czar's revenue, for the people willingly paid the money that they might retain their cherished beards.

Even those who adopted the English dress refused to submit to an act that they thought not only irreligious, but foolish, "for why," said they, "deprive the chin of its natural covering in a climate where the protection of fur collars was necessary during six months in the year?"

So, finding taxes and fines useless, the czar resolved to convert his subjects to the new fashions by force.

At the gates of the city barbers were stationed, and all, except the peasants, who were allowed to retain their beards, were obliged to submit to a rapid shaving, in spite of entreaties and the offer of large bribes.

And venerable gray beards might be seen scampering through the streets, pursued by the barbers, whom they fled from as they would from hangmen, and when caught the poor runaways frequently lost skin as well as hair in this rough way of shaving. The barbers were most likely Germans or English and probably enjoyed the panic they caused among the Russians.

Shaving had at one time been denounced by the clergy, and a beard at that time was looked upon as a sign of orthodoxy, so that native barbers would have got but little custom. Those Russians who persisted in wearing their long caftans were obliged to kneel down, and their garments were cut off at the knees. Peter sometimes invited the nobles to his table and had them shaved in his presence, a process that some of them resisted, their faces suffering in consequence.

One day when the czar was out walking he met an old man coming from the barber's. Peter spoke kindly to him, telling him that now he had lost his beard he looked like a young man. Upon this the old man put his hand into his bosom and, drawing forth the beard that had been cut off and showing it to the czar, told him that he should preserve it and have it placed in his coffin, that in the next world he might show it to St. Nicholas to prove that he was a true Russian.

Peter did not confine his reforms to the men's habits. He also changed the dress of the Russian ladies; but, though the new costume may have been more convenient, it was certainly not so quaint or picturesque as the old one. The ladies of Russia lived in oriental seclusion, seldom appearing in public and having a separate part of the house appropriated to them, but the czar ordered that at all festivities or public entertainments women should be invited as well as men, but that they must all appear in English dresses.

Whether all of Peter's changes in costume were for the better may be doubted, for before his time stays were unknown in Russia, and when he first visited the German court and was dancing with the ladies he mistook their whale bone corsets for their bodies and complained that the German ladies had such hard bones!—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Lack of Tact.

"Why did you jilt Percy?"

"He is lacking in tact."

"Why, I thought he always said nice things?"

"He does, but not always the right things. He was protesting his love yesterday when we passed an old woman. I saw my cue and said:

"'Will you love me when I get old and look like that woman?'

"'Of course I will, darling!' he cried.

"So I dismissed him. The idea of his consenting to think that I could ever get to look like that horrid old thing!"

STORM INTERRUPTS WORK TRANSFERRING PASSENGERS.

Quebec, Nov. 7.—With 500 steerage passengers and her crew still on board, the Canadian Northern steamer Royal George tonight remained fast where she went aground one mile east of Point St. Lawrence last night. A northeasterly gale with wind blowing 50 miles an hour and a high sea and heavy rain, interrupted the work of transferring the passengers to ships sent to the stranded steamer's assistance. More than 400 passengers were taken off early today. Steamship officials hope the rescue work can be resumed tomorrow. Meanwhile they have given assurance that the Royal George is in no danger of breaking up or sliding off in a disabled condition into stormswept waters.

ARREST MEN ON CHARGE OF WORKING "WIRE TAPPING" SWINDLE

Prominent Citizens of Wilmington, N. C., are Defrauded Out of $25,000—Expert Confidence Man is Prisoner.

New York, Nov. 7.—On complaint of Dr. J. W. Powell and Kirby Sidebury, a lawyer, both of Wilmington, N. C., the police today arrested two men on a charge of having defrauded them out of $25,000 through a "wire tapping" swindle. Sidebury, who says he lost $22,000, identified one of the prisoners as a man who posed as a telegraph company official.

He gave his name as John Kray, but the police say he has often posed as "Sir John Gray,' and that he has been more widely known as "Paper Collar Joe." The police say it is a puzzle to them, with so much publicity given to the old wire tapping swindle that even an occasional victim is found. In the case of the southerners it is alelged $5,000 was spent in staging the swindle. A steerer with his wife took up residence in Wilmington, entertained lavishly and through them Dr. Powell and Sidebury were told how to beat the game in New York.

Although "Paper Collar Joe" gave his name as Kray, his real name is Joseph Krakowski and his birthplace Cleveland, O. He is more than 60 years old and, according to the police, has been a confidence man practically all of hsi life. One of the notable cases in which he figured was the swindling of a man named Kole out of $103,00 in a fixed card game at Naples.

At one time he operated a saloon in St. Paul, Minn., until his record became known. For years he operated on the Atlantic steamers as a card shark, the police say, and occasionally he operated art stores in this city and Chicago. For a season or two he cut a figure in the swell set at Newport as "Colonel Kray."

BODY OF GIBSON CITY MAN IS BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN FOUND

Body of Man Thought to be Dr. W. R. Ely is Recovered From Chicago River.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—The body of a man believed to be that Dr. W. R. Ely of Gibson City, Ill., who disappeared from the nome of relatives here two weeks ago, was taken from the Chicago river tonight by police.

Richard Morris, a friend of the missing physician, made a futile attempt to identify the body after it had been taken to a morgue. Members of the physician's family were notified and they will come here tomorrow to attempt identification.

No marks of violence were found on the body which apparently had been in the water almost two weeks and indications were that death was not the result of suicide or accidental drowning. All the labels in the clothing had been removed.

Ely carried a considerable amount of money and wore jewelry when he disappeared. A few days ago a blood-stained cap which the physician wore when last seen was found on a bridge over the Chicago.

JUBILANT IN NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, Nov. 7.—Latin-Americans in New Orleans are jubilant over the election of Woodrow Wilson. At a meeting of the Central American colony today a telegram of congratulations was sent the governor in which the belief was expressed that the Wilson administration would mean "the death of dollar diplomacy, which has brought untold suffering and loss of life and property to our people," and the re-establishment of social and commercial relations between the United States and the republics to the south.

OFFICIAL COUNT NECESSARY TO DECIDE KANSAS GOVERNOR

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 7.—Although complete unofficial returns from all the counties in Kansas have been received, the result of the contest between Arthur Capper, Republican, and George H. WILL PLAY GEM CITY TOMORROW

Illinois College Football Eleven Will Line Up Against Quincy Squad.

The Illinois College football team is preparing for its next game, which will be played at Quincy on Saturday with the Gem City Business College team. As an opponent last year the Gem City team won from the blue and white on the local field by a score of 6 to 0. The game was played on a muddy field in a drizzling rain. Under such conditions chance played a big part in the game, and luck broke in favor of the visitors. The Illinois players are determined to wipe out that score on Saturday. Rain and a muddy field have interferred considerably with practice this week. Yesterday, however, the team was given a long scrimmage with the high school team and showed a return of the vim and dash which has characterized the play of the team at the beginning of the season. Alford has been shifted from fullback, and with Darragh a fullback and Sorrells at left half the back field has more of the requisite weight than has been available during the season. Another scrimmage is planned for this afternoon with the Tigers from the deaf and dumb. Scrimmage the night before a game is not usually on the program, but scrimmage is badly needed and the risk of injuring men on the day before the contest will be taken in an effort to put the men in the best possible condition to meet the team.

The probable line-up will be:

McLaughlin	le
Russel	lt
Lukeman	lg
Tandy	c
Holmes	rg
Capt. Ross	rt
Karch	re
Stewart	qb
Sorrells	lh
Alford	lh
Darragh	fb

JURY IS DISMISSED.

Wytheville, Va., Nov. 7.—After a jury had been secured in the Wythe county circuit court here today for the trial of Sidna Allen, the Carroll county clansman charged with the murder of Judge Thornton L. Massie, the defense moved that the jury be dismissed. The prosecution joined in the request and the court so ordered. Another venire of fifty men will be summoned from Grayson county for examination on Monday.

In the examination of prospective jurors today it developed that one of them had discussed the case in the presence of the others, and this apparently was the reason for the dismissal of the jury.

"BUCKS" HOT BLAST

¶The heaters that produce more heat for less money than any stoves in the world.

¶There is no ordinary heater in the country that will successfully burn every fuel.

¶It takes more than ordinary stove construction to burn soft coal, including slack.

¶Soft coal is about one-half gas, and the ordinary stove that is supposed to burn successfully soft coal taking COLD AIR into its fire pot does not burn the gas. It goes up the chimney as waste fuel.

¶Experiment has proven, however, that HEATED AIR taken into its fire pot forms perfect combustion, burns this gas, cokes coal and thereby consumes all the heat producing material in soft coa, burning it into heat units

¶"Bucks" Hot Blast Heater has a specially constructed fire pot that successfully burns all fuels, including slack

¶The air is drawn into the fire pot through a heated duct which completely encircles it; this heated air is fed to the top of fuel surface; thereby consuming all gases

¶Combustion takes place in a complete circle against the fire pot, highly heating the ENTIRE RADIATING SURFACE,

¶With "Buck' Hot Blast Heater you derive Base Burner resuts.

¶A highly heated base, surface that is ALL radiating surface and no waste fuel.
